

IB Account Policy with Sword Capital

1. The Introducing Broker (also known as IB) must be over 18 years of age.
2. The IB can be a local resident or an offshore resident.
3. The IB must introduce at least 5 clients (non-family members) with 1000$ as a first minimum deposit per each client in order to be entitled for receiving commissions.
4. The IB will be reimbursed with all the commissions of his/her clients once the target of 5 clients is reached.
5. The IB must provide valid Civil ID and valid Passport copy for opening an IB Account.
6. The IB must have a live trading account with Sword Capital.
7. The IB understands the rules and terms of IB Contract and Trading Contract, rules can be changed at company's discretion.
8. The IB's commission from his/her clients is 5$ per standard lot excluding Crypto Currencies and Equities.
9. The IB must follow up with his/her clients regularly.
10. If the IB does not follow up with the clients and doesn't service them for over 3 months, the IB client will then belong to Sword Capital.
11. The IB agrees that Sword Capital is not liable for any losses that his/her client incurs from the IB's advice.
12. The IB can provide advice to his/her client but cannot trade for his/her clients.
13. The IB must sign the IB Contract form in order to introduce his/her clients and to receive commissions from them. The clients introduced to company before signing the IB contract will not be considered as IB's customers.

Authorized by
Sword Capital Management